

4 children, one BASE

- Personas for Autistic children

Samrat Vashisth

AGE: 13

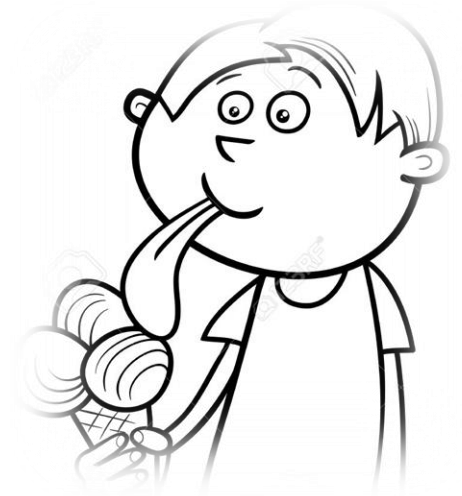

Status: Diagnosed with autism level 2 and ADHD

TREATMENT AND CURRENT STATUS:

Therapies in a center near Rohtak.
Single child to his parents and don't carry an admission in any school.
His mother is a teacher and father a government officer, capable enough to support his child financially but lack time due to respective jobs.
Currently he can speak some words for purpose when he feels hungry, sleepy or wants to do something urgent.
Can do some tasks on his own like serve himself food, play some videogames.
Extremely talented in building puzzles.

LIKINGS:

- Spend time outside
- Cycling
- Pizza and Spicy food
- Play with water
- Head massage
- Ice Cream and cold beverages

FRUSTRATIONS:

- Forcibly kept in a verbal discussion
- Touched
- Restricted from moving
- High Temperature
- Loud noises
- Writing and studying

Samrat's Mother: Kavita

Details: Respected Teacher of Secondary class students, Rich of knowledge and deals children with patience and efforts

Well behaved person and communicates well with other teachers, she takes her child sometimes to her school when there is no therapy session and leave him in primary classes.

He is treated there politely, provided with colorful toys to engage him in activities so that he don't have abnormal behavior.

Despite that there is a worker Mahesh from nearby place who takes care of him from morning to evening.

Scenarios:

- The child got stung by an ant in pants in the class. The child was in immense pain yet not able to explain. Crying, shouting and running everywhere in corridor without pants, her mother was asked to appear in principal's office for requesting her not to bring her child in school,
- Once the child bit Mahesh's hand for not allowing him to run on streets.
- Mahesh once took Samrat to his house because of some urgent work and Samrat was offered with some candies by Ramesh's wife, after having what he developed some ulcers in mouth and Impetigo on skin. Later when asked, Ramesh refused for anything happened at his home and the reason never got cleared.

Samrat's Father: Satvik

Details: Reputed income tax officer, most time out for duty in different regions, when have time likes to spend time with his family, usually takes family to short trips and much dedicated for his child's learning. Brings different kind of puzzles every time he go out for duty. Takes Samrat for regular checkup to a known Delhi hospital. Knows how to make Samrat fall asleep, smile and stop crying by tickling, taking him out for walk and taking him on his shoulders.

Scenarios:

- Once his co-workers attended his home for meeting and dinner, Samrat got annoyed on watching his father not giving him attention much and cried the whole time, not a single trick to correct his behavior worked and the officers left sooner after food understanding the child is not liking their presence.
- Samrat once taken to a mall tore all the price tags of cloths and essentials of which they had to buy most of that irrelevant stuff.
- Both his mother as well as his father lost most of their personal time with each other as for e.g. when they wanted to buy clothes, one need to stay at home with Samrat, so that they can make proper choices without taking two things in mind.

In this situation people who can accommodate a better solution for Samrat are his parents, Mahesh, his treatment center teachers.

Karanjeet Gill

Age: 8

Status: not tested for autism yet and faces dyslexia.

TREATMENT AND CURRENT STATUS:

Lives in Punjab in a joint family.
His mother is a housewife and father, a farmer, Karan attends a govt. school there.

Often complaint about his introvert behavior and non attentive listening, teased by classmates as well as cousins don't like to include him in play.

Box headed and swollen head due to which he is mostly made fun of.

Usually spends time with his mother in kitchen and sitting in balcony.

LIKINGS:

- Watch birds chirping
- Climb trees
- Chopping vegetables neatly
- Making perfect chapattis
- Time left alone

FRUSTRATIONS:

- Forcibly kept in a verbal discussion
- Touched
- Not enough sleep
- Proper meal
- Mother left him at home
- Stopped when he is having a Random cry mood
- Beaten by his father for such academic complaints

Karan's Family

Details: Mother is a regular housewife, simple and quite behavior, not much educated to teach her child academic things.

His whole joint family owes a big field, his father is eldest of his brothers, so most of the responsibilities lie on him.

Considering his child normal, he don't have much concern to him,

Beside this Karan have a younger sister who tries to play with him doll's game, kitchen-kitchen or doctor-doctor or some pretend games.

Karan usually tries to skip being in communication with his sister and father.

Karan's Chachaji take him out for walk when bringing vegetables and it seems that Karan enjoys it.

Karan has a best friend in a dog, Plays with him most the time, but usually the dog is not allowed to come near home due to unhygienic conditions and pooping around.

Karan plays with a stick in water making waveforms on water.

Karan once enjoyed a cartoon movie in school with non verbal communication with laughter moments, although he didn't laughed but kept sitting their watching that for long.

Karan elder sibling(uncle's child) consider him slow and special child, but when tried to interfere in his activities, he usually don't answer back

Scenarios:

- His odd looks make him a reason of laughter due to which he is quite underconfident Infront of anyone.
- He likes misplace things from one room to another making his family mates irritated.
- Karan once attacked a child with pencil in his ear for teasing him sitting on the side bench.
- Karan once stole a ring of his bua and wore it, when found everyone was angry on him.
- Karan cut his cousin's ghagra to clean the spilled water in room
- Don't put in water in toilet after being told to do so millions of time
- Fell down from stairs most of the time when he try to come down without holding fence.

Chirag

Age: 17

Status: considered abnormal child

TREATMENT AND CURRENT STATUS:

Lives in orphanage.

Made to learn some basic activities like washing clothes and utensils, wiping, dusting, garland making, etc.

Not liked by workers out there, requires special attention, often masturbates in public and every child treats him badly, tries to run away from orphanage occasionally and don't know how to speak.

LIKINGS:

- Spending time on streets
- Staring through gate
- Putting flowers in garland
- Listening loud music
- Milk and jalebis

FRUSTRATIONS:

- Ill treatment by workers and children
- Tied back in room
- No Proper meal
- Swiping the floor
- Not allowed to cry and stopped from banging head

By the point of other workers:

Much ill behaved child as:

- Washes his clothes incompletely and leaves them untidy
- Pees in most of the corners
- Cries often for no reason
- Don't wear a same cloth for long, neither they have more stalk, nor they have a washing machine to wash his clothes every time
- Once escaped from orphanage in winters and found by some locals lying on road in evening. When enquired he was not able to answer back.

After two days found back after various police enquiries and searches.

By the point of other Children:

Much arrogant child as:

- Breaks their most of the toys and dolls
- Keep twisting grass pieces and making the whole room untidy
- Sleeps on anyone's bed
- Wears every one's clothes
- Keep on scratching his private parts and smelling his hands, not washing his hand and eating food with those hands
- Eating every one's part of sweets.
- Regular stomach ache

Chirag's Past:

Unable to handle him with 5 more kids in poverty, his parents left him at an orphanage at 2 due to his extra demanding activities and irritating cries.

Orphanage owner was told about Chirag to be a normal child so he welcomed Chirag to the orphanage.

Continuous complaints related to handling were shown up later.

Once a pair took him but later left him back for not adapting the surroundings and continuous crying in new circumstances, was not eating properly.

Orphanage Owner:

Kind, sensible person

Regularly visits orphanage and views Chirag as not normal child.

Once taken to local doctor and he declared him as normal without considering much cases.

Takes him out sometimes for making him learn about world activities.

The owner was once troubled when he ran on the highway.
So he reduced taking him out but kept an eye on him and his progress.

PROBABLE VICTIMS AND people who can help him:

- The partners who adopted him firstly
- The workers of Orphanage
- A better doctor and financial support holders i.e. Orphanage Owner.
- A team for Diagnosis of issues can be called first for diagnosis of problems and syndromes and some medications can be provided first to maintain hygiene near his pubic area.

Anjaneya Zaheer

Age: 28

Status: Recently tested for autism level 1

OCCUPATION: serviceman in a named hotel.
Often works as part-time Taxi driver.

TREATMENT AND CURRENT STATUS:

Lives in Assam with his wife and daughter.
Often taunted by his wife, coworkers and sometimes crooked.
Simple wordings and can't communicate much.

LIKINGS:

- Driving
- Playing piano
- Playing with his daughter
- Cleaning and setting up things perfectly

FRUSTRATIONS:

- Bullied by everyone around
- Made a reason of laugh
- Made fun of his speaking way
- Heavy music

His wife : Salmi

Details: Married Anjaneya after seeing his parents status and respect in society. Not much interaction with Anjaneya before marriage which may be a reason for more frustrated her seeing his spouse act abnormal sometimes.

She works most time on her daughter's growth considering Anjaneya also as her responsibility but most of the time frustrated of his irresponsive behavior.

Kind by heart, also works hard, works as maid sometimes as well as in tea plantation when Anjaneya not paid well to make her child get better education.

Scenarios:

- Salmi is been made fun most of the time by other women living around for having a stupid spouse and handling homes responsibility
- Once Anjaneya forgot his daughter in market while buying veggies which makes her most time conscious of her daughter left alone with Anjaneya
- Anjaneya is weak in academics so most of the skills are taught to their daughter Reshma by Salmi
- Once Anjaneya beaten a child on street for ill treating Reshma which later became a issue for Salmi.
- Anjaneya is not able to take home responsibilities like electricity connection, pipeline fixage, talking to plumber, constructor, neighbors for help. Sometimes his one friend in contact still helps him for making things work well.

Daughter, Parents and early life:

Bought in Assam, schooling was good, cooperating teachers, but was a below Average student in academics, very slow learner, used to be a part of music society in college life, his parents taught him driving but many issues arose in achieving driving License as he was not able to communicate well with the license provider.

He had three friends who helped him in academics and dropped him home most of the times so that they have much time communicating.

Parents were not so educated, father was a businessman, although Anjaneya was not creating so many issues but his non-communicating nature made them worry of his future.

Scenarios:

- The child was thought to get marry early so that her spouse can guide her way
- Later when they have Reshma, Anjaneya don't allowed anyone to touch her in hospital, neither allowed anyone to put her vaccines, nor He allowed Salma to breast feed her for 5 days till she became seriously ill and was taken away forcefully.
- Reshma is innocent grown up child somewhat introvert but understands his father and tries to imitate him playing harmonica
- Reshma too don't want to study much which irritates her mother much and hence dislikes their company to each other.

PROBABLE VICTIMS AND people who can help him:

- His parents
- His child
- His wife Salma
- His friends
- The doctors and financial support holders i.e. his parents together.